Previous Authorization Form. This Channel Partner Authorization Form replaces and supersedes all prior Authorizations entered into between Company and Microsoft, but only with respect to orders placed under Customer Agreements (as defined in the Agreement) signed on or after the effective date.

Notice of Changes. Microsoft reserves the right to unilaterally modify the terms listed in this Channel Partner Authorization Form from time to time. Microsoft will provide Company no less than one-hundred and eighty (180) days' prior notice before such changes become effective; after such time such changes to this Channel Partner Authorization Form will become effective without further action by the parties. Any modification of this Channel Partner Authorization Form per this provision will have prospective effect only.

Applicable Law; Attorneys' Fees. The choice of jurisdiction, dispute resolution method and venue stated below does not prevent either party from seeking injunctive relief for: (i) violation of intellectual property rights; (ii) breach of confidentiality obligations; or (iii) enforcement or recognition of any award or order in any appropriate jurisdiction. If either party begins litigation in connection with this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and other expenses. The 1980 United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not govern this Agreement.

This Agreement is governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington and the federal laws of the United States. The parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue in the courts sitting in King County, Washington. Company waives all defenses of lack of personal jurisdiction and forum non conveniens.
